Management

Old age, I decided, is a gift. I have always wanted to be old. I don't agonize over it for I would never trade my wrinkles for hair or a flatter belly. And I am grateful for myself. I've become my own person. I'm making my bed, or for breakfast, I'm making garde on my patio. I am surrounded by too many dear friends and family. I am grateful that comes with aging.

Whose business is it if I am not myself to those wonderful people? Over a lost love, I will. I am as well forgotten—and I am grateful my heart has been broken. When a child suffers? Be it a child, compassion. A heart is never being imperfect.

I am so blessed to have my youthful laughs be forever. I have laughed, and so many have. It. I can say 'yes' and mean it. About what other people think I am be wrong.

So, to answer the question, I become. I am not going to be anything. I am not mending what could have been. I don't have to have a room full of computer all day, lay on the beach or movie, I have others, so now I can be happy.

I sometimes feel sorry for the people up, where we feared the future. I to use filthy language in the future.

I am grateful to have lived. Yes, I like being old!...

Hello and Goodbye.....

We are sad to say goodbye to longtime resident Edmund Amsted who has transferred to an assisted living facility in Florida to be close to his family. Edmund was no stranger to you. A veteran and active resident, he was a faithful visitor at the Senior Center and a friendly and familiar face around Samuel Kronman. We will miss you Edmund, but wish you all the very best, good health and happiness in your new home.

A warm welcome to Evelyn Rindner, Highland Park resident who just moved into unit 4R. Please extend a hand of friendship to Evelyn.

THIS MONTH WE FEATURE.....

EMILY SKALTSIOTIS
SAMUEL KRONMAN, Apt. 3-S

Hi, my name is Emily Skaltsiotis. I was born in Sparta, Greece on September 18, 1925. I had 4 brothers and 4 sisters of whom I have 3 brothers & 3 sisters left in Greece. I attended school up to 6th grade and then learned to be a seamstress. I lost my father and one brother to the War.

I got married in 1952 to my husband Harry. He was a cabinet maker. We moved to Athens. We had 2 children, a daughter Mina and son Antony.

In 1966 we moved to America and settled down in Highland Park. My husband found work in Edison making cabinets. While the children were in school, I worked as a seamstress in a Bridal Shop in Highland Park called Marica.

My husband passed away in 1982. My son lives in Los Angeles and my daughter lives right here in Highland Park. I have 3 grand daughters, Penelope, Emily and Hara who I love so much. Penelope is married and lives in Greece and has 3 boys. Hara lives in Florida and has 1 girl. Emily is just married. I am blessed with 4 beautiful great grandchildren.

I moved to Samuel Kronman in 1999. I love it here and have made many friends. I still crochet and am very active in my Church in Piscataway. We do a lot of community and charity work through the church.

JOSEPH THURSTON
HPHA STAFF

Hi, my name is Joe Thurston. I was born on February 17th, 1958 in Haverstraw, New York. I was one of 13 siblings, 2 of whom are deceased. My dad was a Marine Veteran and worked at Key Friez, a chemical company which made artificial sweetener. My mother worked for the State of NY at Letchworth Village, a state run facility for the mentally handicapped.

I graduated from North Rockland High School in 1976. and while in school, worked part time for WT Grants and the local bowling alley and then at Chromalloy R & T in Orangeburg, NY. I worked for my brothers Mike & ED in their construction company as a carpenter from 1980—1997. I then joined the NY DPW for the Village of Haverstraw. I did a vast spectrum of tasks for the DPW including snow clearance.

I was married in 1981 and we had 2 daughters, Elizabeth who is now married and lives in Claxton, Georgia and Amanda who is a senior in High School. I have one grand daughter, Ida Josephine who just turned one year old. She gives me great joy and I love visiting her in Georgia.

I met my significant other, Karen through E-Harmony in 2008 and moved to New Jersey in 2010.

I enjoy Nascar Racing, running, walking, going on cruises with Karen, detailing automobiles and bowling (I have 2-300 games!).

I started working for the HPHA one year ago. I enjoy my job very much and plan to be here for a long time to come!
